

“A Fruitful Church Learns Christ”

Various Texts

Where We’ve Been . . .

- A fruitful church will be committed to sharing all of Christ, with all people, for all of life.
- A fruitful church will prioritize worshipping Christ over working for Christ.
- A fruitful church worships Christ by seeing and savoring God through Bible-based, cross-centered, and Spirit-empowered preaching.

Sermon Summary . . .

A fruitful church will learn Christ’s teaching with a teachable spirit.

Requirements for Being a Church That Has a Teachable Spirit . . .

- Know how to get off our high horse.
 - Acknowledge the knowledge you have is incomplete.
 - Acknowledge the knowledge you have is a gift.
- Know how to talk less, listen more.

- Know how to take advice.

Requirements for Being a Church That Learns Christ . . .

- Familiarize ourselves with two foundational principles . . .
 - We must learn and obey all that Jesus taught.
 - We must learn functional rest is found by obeying all that Jesus taught.
- Commit ourselves to master three foundational areas of Christian knowledge . . .
 - We must learn the Bible.
 - We must learn doctrine.
 - We must learn spiritual habits.